SIMON GNEUSS

STUDENT

PROFILE

Solution-oriented student at CODE University in Berlin with proven research and communication skills.
As a determined intern for Marcus Brumme, I created a booking website in 3 days, among other things.
Additionally, self-employed and value-driven for a positive future of the world.
Seeking for this working-student position to focus more on software engineering and AI.

SKILLS

Languages
- German (native language)
- English (B2)

Coding
- Web development (HTML5, CSS, JavaScript)
- Typscript, React
- Python
- C++ (beginner)

Additional
- Communication certificates of the Samuel-von-Pufendorf Gymnasium
- Workshop: "Style your App"
- Workshop: "Creative Technologies"
- Commitment to the church council

CONTACT

simon@w3work.de
LinkedIn: Simon Gneuß

EXPERIENCE

Support in companies

(w3work and Mailingwork)
- Collaboration on various projects
- Participation in the creation and maintenance of WordPress websites

Marcus Brumme, venture capital investor

in Manchester
- Concept and implementation of the website www.question-time.co.uk
- Involvement in the conception and execution of the "Question Time" format

Independent projects

- Development and operation of the platform "Shortteach", an innovative online learning environment from students for students
- Founding and management of a company specialized in creating websites and landing pages
- Execution and completion of other small web projects with great success

EDUCATION

Samuel-von-Pufendorf Gymnasium Flöha

2015-2023

Abitur with a grade of: 1,7

CODE University of Applied Science

since August 2023

INTEREST

- Traveling (example: Travel-tour "Silicon Valley with focus on ai companies" in Summer 2023)
- Reading (The Hard Thing About Hard Things, Zero to One, 101 Essays)
- Technology and software development (focus on AI)